Recital By Miss Redford and

and Miss Redford.

2. Romance Saus Paroles (Streabbog),
Miss Catharine King.

3. Bobolink Waltz (Bowman), On the Playground (Lichner), Miss Norma Smith,

4. Oberon Fantasia (Kinkel), Miss Annie Pearsall.

5. Musket Galop (Bellak), Miss Florence

6. Fightfall Romance (Ryder), Miss

WEDDINGS IN SOCIETY REALM

The Coming Week Will Copy Fair the Past in Nuptials.

SEASON OF MUSICAL RECITALS

Closing of High Class Schools Are Followed By Delightful Entertainments.

Coming Thro' the Rye. a body meet a body comin' thro the rye.

Gin a body kiss a body, need a body cry?

Ev'ry laste has her laddle;

Nane, they say, ha'e I!

Yeel a' the lads they smile at me

When comin' thro' the rye.

Among the train there is a swain

I dearly lo'e mysel'.

I dearly lo'e mysel', But where's his hame, or what's his name, I dinna care to tell.

Gin a body meet a body comin' frae the Gin a body meet a body comin rate the town;

Gin a body greet a body, need a body frown?
Ev'ry lassle has her laddic;
Nane, they say, ha'e Il'
Yet a' the lads they smile at me
When comin' thro' the rye.
Among the train there is a swain
I dearly lo'e mysel',
But whare's his hame, or what's his name.

name, I dinna care to tell.

Weddings of the Week.

Weddings of the Week.

This week promises to repeat the story of last in the number and social importance of its weddings.

Miss Linda Bargamin and Mr. Woodson Pinckney Waddey will be quietly married in the home of the bride, No. 108 East Cary Street, Tuesday evening, June 6th. at 6:30 O'clock, no invitations having heen issued on account of recent bereavement in the bride's family.

The wedding of Miss Elizabeth Curle Christian to Mr. Charles Mann Tallaferro is announced to take place in Grace is announced to take place in Grace Episcopal Church, Wednesday, June 7th, the bride and groom to leave immediately afterward for a wedding trip North.

On June 8th, in the Second Presbyterian Church, Miss Katherine Belle Pow-ell and Mr. J. Montrose Graham will cell and Mr. J. Montrose Graham will be wedded.

Out-of-town weddings in which Richmond society is interested have to do with the nupthlas of Miss Henrietta Chauncey Quinby to Mr. Robert Claborne Hale, taking place in St. John's Episcopal Church, Bedford City, June Sth, with those of Miss Maude Carroll, of Lynchours, Va. to Dr. Danlel W. Layman, of Indianapolis, Indiana, on June 7th, and of Miss Edith Louise Mallory, of Memphis, to Mr. Kenneth Graham Duffleid, of Bloomfield, N. J.

Rrown—Russell.

Brown-Russell.

One of the most fashionable and beau-tiful of last week's weddings was cele-brated at 4:30 o'clock Saturday after-noon in the Presbyterian Church of Win-chester, Virginia, when Man Man noon in the Presbyterian Church of Win-chester, Virginia, when Miss Mary E. Russell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Russell, became the bride of Mr. Gardiner Willard Brown, of New York, son of Mr. Vernon H. Brown, vice-president of the Cunard Steamship Com-

W.B. Shirt Waist Corsets

are made of the lightest weight batiste in the world. They are moisture proof and rust-less. They do not bulge at the bust and shoulder blades or show hard ridges, when worn under thin materials. The new models are exquisitely shapely and graceful. Your dealer will show you a variety of styles in both W.B. Erect Form and our newest creation who will be a charming Virginia representative as maid of honor to Miss Anne Salley, of Newport News, Va., at the Louisville reunion, for the bridal party. The Russell home, on Washington Street, Winchester, where a reception was held after the ceremony, was decorated throughout in roses. A quartette sang the wedding chorus from Lohengrin as the bride entered the church, and the Rev. Dr. Henry M. White church, and the Rev. Dr. Henry M. White was the officiating clergyman.

Miss Vernon Brown, of New York city, was the maid of honor. The six bridesmaids were Miss Mabel Walker, of Richmond; Miss Helen Denison and Miss Anne Lathrop, of Baltimore; Miss Bessle Love, Miss Lucy Willis and Mrs. Henry Kerr Russell, of Winchester. The best man was Mr. Stephen H. Brown, of New York, and the groomsnen, Mr. Prescott H. Slade, Mr. Herbert H. Childs, Mr. George O. Readington, Mr. Edward G. Burgess, Jr., Mr. William C. Camman, Mr. Beverly Bogart, Dr. James T. Russell, Mr. L. Howland Brown, Mr. John C. Arden and Mr. Reginald K. Plerce, all of New York city.

The bride, who is considered one of the handsomest women in Virginia, came in

The bride, who is considered one of the handsomest women in Virginia, came in with her father. She wore ivory white satin, trimmed with rare old lace and made en princesse. The folds of her veil fell from a coronet of orange blossoms and her flowers were lilies of the valley and white orchids. The bridesmalds were in pink silk mull, with large pink hats. They carried pink ruffled chiffon parasols, the gift of the bride.

Mrs. James B. Russell, the bride's mother, had on white Irish lace, a lace hat and white ostrich feathers. Mrs. Vernon H. Brown, the mother of the groom, were black lace over white.

The bride and groom left after the re-wore black lace over white.

The bride and groom left after the reception by special train for New York, and will sail for Europe, where they will spend the summer, making their future residence in New York city, Out-of-town guests invited were Mr. and Mrs. Yernen H. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Houghas W. Burnham, Mr. Lorlmer Worden, Mrs. W. Burnham, Mr. Lorlmer Worden, Mrs. W. K. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Hillie Bloodgood, all of New York; Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Drayten, of Philadelphia; Mr. Hal D. Flood, of Appomattox; United States Senator and Mrs. Thomas Martin, Mr. Senator and Mrs. Thomas Martin, Mr. and Mrs. A. Blerne Blair, of Richmond; Mr. and Mrs. Beverly Tucker, of Lexington, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Milliken, Mr. and Mrs. Beverly Tucker, of Lexington, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Milliken, of Pagebrook, Clarke county; Mr. and Mrs. William H. Blackford and Dr.
Thomas L. Shearer, of Baltimore; Judge and Mrs. Carter Scott, of Richmond;
Judge Georgo W. Morris, of Charlottesville, Va.; Dr. Joseph M. Blake, of New York, and Dr. Frederick Van Buren, of New York city; Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Kernedy and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kennedy, of Chambersburg, Pa.

Chipley. Burd

Shipley-Byrd.

Shipley—Byrd.

Shipley—Byrd.

Shipley—Byrd.

Miss Susan Rivers Byrd. daughter of the late Colonel William Byrd, of Winchester, Va., and Mr. J. Lester Shipley, Jr., son of the Rov. J. Lester Shipley, of Alderson, W. Va., were married in the home of the bride, on North Calvert Street, Baltimore, at noon of Saturday, the Rev. J. Houston Eccleston, rector of Emmanuel Episcopal Church, officialting. No invitations were sent out, and only members of the immediate families of the contracting parties were present. The bride-was given away by her brother, Mr. William Byrd, and the brother of the groom, Dr. George Shipley, was best man. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Shipley left for a Northern trip. Upon their return they will reside at No. 1425 Bolton Street, Baltimore.

Many handsome wedding presents were received. Mrs. Shipley is a member of the Byrd family, so long identified with the famous estate of "Westover," on James River. Her great-grandfather. Colonel William Byrd, was the owner of "Westover," and resided there; his son, Richard Evelyn Byrd, Mrs. Shipley is agrandfather, removed to Winchester, Va., which has since been the home of this branch of the family.

Mr. Shipley is widely known throughout Virginia. He received his early education at Charlestown, W. Va., and sfitewards graduated from Randolpha-Macon Colege. In New York he was secretary of the Produce Exchange Building and Lynding and Ohio Hailroad.

Announcements.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Barney of

Announcements.

the only popular priced models which will give the high bust, small waist figure effect which fashion now demands.

Priced from $1.00 to $5.00 the pair.

Weingaren hiers, Makers, New York.

E77-579 Breadway.

Announcements,

Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Barney, of Ogoutz, Pa., announce the engagement of their daughter, to Mr. Archibald B. Hubard, of Arrington, Va.

Light—Williams,

Mrs. J. S. Williams has sent out cards for the marriage of her daughter, daughter, daughter, title Leonard, to Mr. W. A Light, of Harriman, Tenn The marriage will take Williams's family, the marriage will be quiedly celebrated and there will be no reception to follow. The bride-to-be is a daughter of the late Dr. John S. Williams...

Delano-Cahill.

Mrs. Annie B. Blunt, of No. 1123 Grove Avenue, announces the marriage of her cousin, Miss Lyda May Cahill, of Newport, Ky., to Mr. Frank Elmer Delano, of Newark, N. J. The wedding will take place at the above residence June 14th at 6:30 P. M.

Owing to both families being in mourning, only immediate relatives will be

Last Meeting of the Season.

On Thursday afternoon the Woman's

On Thursday afternoon the Woman's Auxiliary of the Virginia Passenger and Power Young Men's Christian Association held its last meeting of the season. The members were the guests of Mrs. S. W. Huff at her delightful home on West Broad Street, where, after the business meeting, refreshments were served on the lawn by the hostess, assisted by several ladles of the auxiliary. This meeting closed a year of successful work, under the able administration of the president, Mrs. F. J. Craigle.

The Woman's Auxiliary now has a membership of sixty active members and five honorary. It has conducted several socials and recoptions, assisted in the reliligious meetings at the Reservoir, conducted four successful children's railies, with an average attendance of one hundred and fifty eager and interested children, and by the energy and enthusiasm of its members contributed largely to the successful and enjoyable plenic at Westhampton Park in the early fall. Perlaps its most important and effective work was that of the Sick and Relief Committee among those families, where, from accident or sickness, the men had been kept out of work. Such timely assistance as the auxiliary has given was both welcomed and highly appreciated by the recipients. Details are not published, but there have been contributions of cash, fuel and groceries to about seventeen families, and numbers of sick who have not there have been contributions of cash, fuel and groceries to about seventeen families, and numbers of sick who have not needed such relief have been furnished with flowers, grape juice and fruit.

Two meetings have been held lately—one bringing together the ladies of Manchester, who are connected with employes of the company, at the home of Mrs. Andrews, and one for the ladies of Church Hill, held at Mrs. Fowden's home, and a growing interest in the work of the Church Hill, held at Mrs. Fowden's home, and a growing interest in the work of the auxiliary is manifested. Miss Helen Gould's great interest in the Baking Powder.

An Irresistible Proposition:

Perfect Purity, Highest Leavening Powper. Rock-Bottom Price. Coupon on each can, Valuable Premiums.

James," Valse (Ernest Bolling), Miss Myrtle Redford.

The pupils acquitted themselves in a most creditable manner, showing careful, intelligent training, such as can be given only by a cultivated musician.

Miss Annie Louise Reinhardt, the accomplished daughter of Prof. Jacob Reinhardt, was present, and at the urgent selicitation of the audience performed Vieuxtemp's "Fantasic Caprice," Miynarski's "Mazurka," and Hauser's exquisite "Cradle Song," her playing being characterized by that sweetness and breadth of tone and splendid technique for which this young lady is famous.

this young lady is famous.

Miss Myrtle Redford gave the closing numbers on the programme. She played exquisitely and with a perfect mastery of the plane the beautiful concert waltz "Mocalight of the James," by Mr. Ernest Enjoyable Entertainment.

A most enjoyable entertainment was given by the officers of Company F. Seventleth Regiment, at Westhampton Park, last Friday night.

About sixty couples danced to the delightful strains of the musicians until 10:30 o'clock, when refreshments were served. At the close of the evening, Captain Tony Miller returned thanks to Captain Stone and his two lieutenants, on behalf of Company F and the visiting military, for the delightful evening they had spents.

At the conclusion of Captain Miller's speech, three hearty cheers were given for the officers, and hopes expressed that another such pleasure might soon again be theirs. Park, last Friday night.

be theirs. (19).

Captain Miller was induced to sing one of his most happy songs during the evening, for which three cheers were

The time to catch the last car came ill too soon: Tea at Woman's Club. Ten wull l the board carnestly beg the parents and teachers of the children to send them to the entertainment and so help a good cause.

Fraternity Banquet,

efforts of the auxiliary has led her to offer a fible as a prize to any one connected with the organization who will memorize certain perions of Scripture chosen by herself. The auxiliary has also offered a New Testament to those completing the Old Testament portion of these verses, and at the children's ralles great interest has been shown, two young girls, while many more young people are studying the passages assigned. The members of the auxiliary feel great by encouraged as they look back upon their first year's work, and anticipals taking up the active work of the organization in September with renewed energy and chiuslasm.

Despite a downfall of rain, an appreciative audience assembled to hear the splendid music given by Miss Myrtle Redford and pupils at her studie on Friday night. The programme consisted of the following pieces:

1. La Gaillina (Gottschalk), Master King and Miss Redford.

Lizzie Thomas.
7. Philomei Pelka Brillante (Kunkel),
Miss Pearsall and Miss Redford.
8. Menuet (Mozart), Miss Margaret 8. Menuet. (MUZZIC), Ward.
9. Pizzicata (Delibes), Valse in D Flat (Chopin), Master McGowan King.
10. "Shadow Dance" (McDowell), "Rustle of Spring" (Sinding), "Moonlight on the James," Valse (Ernest Bolling), Miss Myrtin

the entertainment and so help a good cause.

Fraternity Banquet,
Omicron Chapter of Pl Kappa Alpha Fraternity, at Richmond College, united with Alumnus Alpha of Richmond in their annual banquet, given in Murphy's Hotel Friday evening.

Many knights of the "Shield and Diamond" from the various Virginia chapters and a goodly number of the legal "slaters" were present, and made the occasion a most enjoyable and happy one. The spacious banquet hall was beautifully decorated with the fraternity colors and pennants. Dancing was the closing feature of the evening.

Among those present were Misses Susette G. Beale, of King and Queen; Stella K. Bass, of Richmond; Barah Lee Robertson, of Salem, Va.; Ella, M. Smith, of Clifton Forge; Annie F. Barnes, of Richmond; Placidia A. Hudnall, of Northumberland; Lucy M. Taylor, of Richmond; Judith A. Kemp, of Hebrico; Edith L. Hafcher, of Fork Union; Virginia L. Williams, Langhorne Cosby, Maud G. Steele, Lynda M. Kolper and Mrs. Robert Whittet, Jr., chaperone, all of Richmond.

The members of Omicron Chapter present were Messrs. R. Halman Willis, Walter G. Tyler, Paul P. Woodin, Deane Hundley, Phillip M. Gresham, Carter E. Talmon, A. Willis Robertson, John S. Wright, George B. Wright, John S. Harwood, Jr., C. Hawthorne Elsom, R. Spencer Ellis, Marion G. Willis, Jr., Cosby M. Robertson, Joseph P. Snead.

Representatives from Alumnus Alpha included Messrs. James Alston Cabell, Clinton A. Boyce, Oscar Swindford, Edwin P. Cox, Robert Whittet, Jr., was toastmaster, Mr. Clinton A. Boyce, Oscar Swindford, Edwin P. Cox, Robert Whittet, Jr., was toastmaster, Mr. Clinton A. Boyce, Oscar Swindford, Edwin P. Cox, Robert Whittet, Jr., was toastmaster, Mr. Clinton A. Boyce presponded to the toast, "Pl Kappa Alpha Memorics;" Hon. James Alston Cabell, Clinton A. Boyce, Oscar Swindford, Edwin P. Cox, Robert Whittet, Jr., was toastmaster, Mr. Clinton A. Boyce responded to the toast, "Pl Kappa Alpha Memorics;" Hon. James Alston Cabell, to "Virginia—Mother of Pl Kappa Alpha Memorics," Hongon Planch Re

To Be Repeated.

The May Queen, which was given last Friday a week ago at Belvidere Hall, will be repeated next Friday, June 9th, at Northside Hall, Chestnut Hill.
The entertainment will be very enjoyable, as it is composed of Richmond and Chestnut Hill's fairest young ladies and with come.

little ones.
Four pages—Masters John H. Tyler, Jr., Pinckney Powers, Brown Powers and McKim Marriott—will usher in the Queen, Miss Elizabeth Wingo, and her fairy train of forty lovely girls. Solos, recitations and the "College Drill," by fourteen of Chestnut Hill's lovellest daughters will complete the evening's programme.

Closing Recital.

The annual closing recital of Professor Kahn's music class was held last Thursday night at the Y. M. C. A. Hall. As on former occasions, the hall again was filled to lits capacity by a fashionable and attentive audience. There is evidently a great deal of musical talent among Professor Kahn's pupils, as the programme, which was well chosen, in-

MISS MARY RIEMAN HACK.

Miss Hack is sponsor for Turner-Ashby Camp of Confederate Veterand at the Louisville reunion. She is the daughter of the late Andrew Hack, of Baltimore, who served in McNeill's Rangers during the Civil War and was a member of Turner-Ashby Camp after its close.

Club every Monday afternoon until fur-ther notice. The daily teas will also be

For Benefit of Home.

For Benefit of Home.

A grand military drill by forty young ladies, under the command of Captain Frankle Tiller, will be given for the benefit of the Home for Needy Confederate Women in St. Mary's Hall, Wednesday night, June 7th, at 8 o'clock.

Miss Eleanor Steinbrecker will read "The Sword of Lee." The lady board of managers solicit the patronage of the public at this entertainment, as the proceeds will be used for the benefit of the inmates of the home.

All interested and holding tickets for the burgsy donated by the Virginia Vehicle Company, the handsome silk slumber robe given by Mrs. J. M. Fourqurean, and a painting of The White House of the Confederacy, are expected to be present, as these things are to be voted on. Governor and Mrs. Montague will be present, and a moderate admission fee will be charged.

Children's Entertainment. Children's Entertainment.

An entertainment also for the benefit of the Needy Confederate Woman's Home will be given to children in St. Mary's Hall, corner of Fourth and Myrshall Streets, Wednesday afternoon, June 7th, from 4 to 6 o'clock, by some of the members of Misses Kidwell's class.

chass.

The Misses Leftwich will appear in a skirt dance; little Blanche Cole and Virgina Hooper, in the Sallor's Hornpipe; Master Stewart Cates and Miss Josephine Murray in the cake walk. Master Henry Plagomau will take part in the programme. Ten small children will take part in a tambourine dance, and the Misses Leftwich will sing. Refreshments will be served, and the ladies of composers, was played with keenness expression and wonderful technique, Aranea Club.

A social organization that has Dr. H. Cabell Tabb as its president and Mrs. Oliver J. Sands as secretary and treas-urer is called the Aranea Club, and during two past winter, has done much for the pleasure and enjoyment of society to play "the spider."

The last of the series of club meetings and one of the most delightful, was held Friday evening last in the com-

Graduation Gifts at Every Price

FROM inexpensive articles to the most costly—the greatest possible range in choice and

All correspondence given careful attention. Goods sent on approval, express prepaid, Galt & Bro.

Established Over a Century.

Jewellers, Silversmiths, Stationers 1107 Pennsylvania Avenue. Washington, D. C.

A Sale of Shirt-Waist Hats

AT PRICES SUBJECTED

The styles are the most popular, as the following descriptions attest, and the prices so low that we count this one of the most important sales that we have yet conducted.

98c Value $1.75

VERY BECOMING SAILOR effect, fashioned high back, round crown, draped with white velvet holding quills. Bandeau concealed at back by Alsatioan bow of the velvet; white only.

98c Value $1.75

SMART SAILOR, with bell crown of Milan braid, brim of rough straw, edged with velvet. Band of velvet encircles the crown and ties at side into bow, finished with pompon-red, navy, green and brown.

$1.98 Value $3.00

VERY NOBBY SAILORS of rough straw, crown draped with net scarf of olive green, fashloned into bow-knot at side, plerced by shaded wing-very smart effect.

Polo Turbans

SMART POLO TURBANS of Black Tuscan braid, brush at side-extra

POLO TURBANS of black horsehals braid, with brush, $1.98. VERY STYLISH TURBANS of Tueback with velvet straps, caught with peated at side, where bunch of quille is added, with smart effect; $3.00 value, special $1.75. BPANISH TURBAN of horsehaler braid, with folded chiffon inset around brim: finished at side with straw, crown draped with net scarf buckle, $2.45.

Final Clearance of

Women's Spring Suits

SPEEDY CLEARANCE of all women's Spring A Suits is the object of this sale. Summer Suits now demand more space, the urgency of the occasion is reflected in the prices quoted—less in many instances than it cost to make the garments. Blouse Suit, of good quality brilliantine, in brown and

FORMER PRICE ($7.98 REDUCED TO $3.98

FORMER PRICE $17.50 REDUCED TO

REDUCED FROM

$22.50 TO $18.50 Nobby Short Cost Suit, of black sicilian; collarless effect, intaid with taffets and elaborated with soutable, corresponding treatment at cuffs. Full, kilted skirt of seventeen gores. The jacket is lined with heavy taffets. Russian Blouse Suit, of fancy checked mohair, blous tucked front and back, with plaited peplum, Collar-blue. The collariess, and cuffs inlaid with tan can-vas and trimmed with fancy soutache. Full plaited less, elaborated with novelty braid in self tone, vest of fandy Persian braid. Skirt of fifteen gores inset at knee with inverted plaits, headed by a trimming of braid ornaments. The jacket is taffeta lined.

FORMER PRICE REDUCED TO

Eton Suit, of fancy checked mohair, very nobby shor Eton, box plaited front and back, piping of silk and crochet buttons employed for trimming; taffets lined; new model skirt with graduated foot kilta-

Girls' Summery Dresses

In styles that portray the ideas of experts in youthful fashions. Four special numbers go on sale to-morrow at prices that spell economy.

PRETTY DRESS of Blue and White Check Chambray, with yoke cuffs and belt, in solid blue, trimmed in bands of self material, made very REGULATION BLOUSE SUIT of tan white or brown and white shep-herd's pixid; box pisits back and front; embroidered red anchors on the white linen collar, slik tie and patent leather belt—$3,50.

BUSPENDER DRESS of good quality brown or blue mohair, the suspenders piped in white, full plaited skirt, finshed with circular belt, white musiin gaimpe, tucked and embroidery trimmed—$4.38.

try residence of Mr. O. J. Sands, at Chester. Va., where old-time Virginia hospitality was dispensed and enjoyed to the utmost.

The annual prize offered by the club for the player making the finest record during the entire season was awaided at this meeting to Colonel John S. Harwood, who was quite overwhelmed at being presented with a beautiful silver loving cup.

loving cup.

Mrs. Frederick Phillips and Mr. Austin H. Burr tied for the booby, that finally went to Mr. Burr. Much merriment was afforded by the fact that when the booby was extricated from its voluminous wrappings, it proved to be an exaggerated imitation, in tin, of the loving cup already given to Colonel Harwood.

House Party at Waverly.

Misses Ruth and Elizabeth Harrison are entertaining a number of their friends at their country home, Waverly. Among the guests are Misses Emma and Virginia Charke, Miss Nell Sinton and Miss Lucy Scott, of Richmond; Miss Olive Bagby, of King and Queen county; Miss Myrtle Langford, of Maryland, and Miss Jessie Lane, of North Carolina.

Driving, tennis and other outdoor amusement, with a cordial welcome at their old Virginia home, will doubtless assure a delightful week.

Personal Mention.

The Oakwood Memorial Association will meet at 11 o'clock A. M. on June 8th in the chapel of St. John's Church.

Mrs. Tyler G. Kent, who has been spending some time in Richmond, left on Friday for Washington, D. C.

The Misses Kidwell will give their monthly german on the 9th of June at Belvidere Hall from 8:30 to 11:30 P. M.

Miss Ellen Montgomery, who has been spending some time in Richmond, has returned to Verdon, Va.

Mr. Walter Gresham Tyler, of Buena Vista, is spending some time with friends in Richmond.

Miss Josie O'Ferrau left Friday for Providence Hospital, at Washington, D. C., to resume her duties as nurse.

Miss Maggie Myers and Miss Mary Carter Myers, of Norfolk, are guests of their aunt, Mrs. W. W. Myers, No. 1022 West Grace Street.

Miss Belie Rateliffe is the guest of Mrs. W. F. Woodward, in Barhamsville.

Major A. L. Hunt, of Amherst Courthouse, is spending a few days in Richmond.

mond.

Miss Ethel Deans, who has been attending the Woman's College, has returned to her home, at Windsor. Mr. D. G. Robinson is in Tazewell for a few days,

Mr. M. S. Pendleton, who has been visiting in Richmond, has returned to Tazewell. It is announced that Miss Annie Robertson will be married to Mr.

Nowlin, at Spout Spring, Va., on June

Professor J. M. Harris, of Culpoper, accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. B. P. Willis, are in Richmond, attending the commencement exercises of the Woman's College, where Professor Harris's daughter, Miss Nona M. Hairis, graduates.

Mrs. W. C. Boyd and little son are spending a week with Mrs. Boyd's paronts, Mr, and Mrs. T. D. Coghill, in Bowling Green.

Mrs. W. L. Cox is the guest of her sister, Mrs. D. P. Branch, No. 207 Dalke Street, Norfolk.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry D. Eichelberger have returned to their home in Chester, after spending the month of May at the Greenwood cottage, Virginia Beach, Miss Kate Myers will spend Jdv with friends at Newport News, and later will visit her sister, Mrs. Armistead Bosland, in Ghent, Norfolk.

Miss Gerirude Flannigen is the guest of her brother on Chestnut Avenue, Newport News.

Miss Mabel Smith, of Golansville, Va., is visiting relatives in Richmond.

Miss Mary Stelth, who has been the guest of friends in this city, has returned to Newport News.

Mr. A. C. Hancok, of West Appendix

Mr. A. C. Hancock, of West Appomat-(Continued on Seventh Page.)

We make a specialty of HEAVY TIMBERS For Wharves, Bridges, Tresties, Derricks, Large Buildings and other work requiring Southern

LONG LEAF YELLOW PINE. LARGEST STOCK IN THE STATE,

WOODWARD & SON, Lumbermen, Richmond, Va.